

Mark Camilleri

Mark Camilleri is a Canadian-European lawyer with over 20 years of corporate, commercial, and regulatory law experience in the European Union, Canada, and the United Kingdom.

Mark has extensive knowledge and experience across a broad range of industry sectors. These include mining, energy, professional services, international consulting services and the not-for-profit sector.

Mark assists clients on a variety of legal and regulatory matters, including important regulatory developments affecting the EU Single Market.

Mark is a European data protection (GDPR) expert. He is a Certified Information Privacy Professional Europe (CIPP/E) and a member of the International Association of Privacy Professionals.

Mark helps clients by offering suitable and pragmatic solutions to increasingly complex legal and regulatory issues. Through his range of experience and knowledge, Mark offers distinctive strategic advice.

Mark is passionate about the Canada-Atlantic economic relationship and devotes a great deal of time assisting companies to succeed in Canada and Europe.

Mark is the co-founder and President of the Canada EU Trade and Investment Association (CEUTIA), a Brussels based not-for-profit organization that aims to promote the Canada-EU Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) and the wider Canada-EU economic and trade relationship in Brussels.

Client's benefit from Mark's deep Canada-Atlantic network to ensure their needs and objectives are met in a meaningful and cost-effective manner.

Mark holds an LL.M. in EU Law from KU Leuven (Belgium), an LL.B. and MBA from Dalhousie University (Canada) and a B.A. Honours degree in International Relations from the University of Toronto (Canada).

Mark is a full member of the Brussels (Belgium / EU), Ontario (Canada) and England (United Kingdom) bars.

Mark is a part-time visiting professor at the Faculty of Law at KU Leuven and is regularly invited as a speaker or contributor on CETA and other Canada-EU related issues.
